rather than the play. The general verdict was that the theatre is a very handsome one.

A field-day is expected to-day in the Municipality, as there are some matters of a red-hot-coal kind to be discussed. It is some time now since there was any

The Senators of the Nation sat yesterday. The new Senator for Rioja was sworn in. Then a fresh deluge of petitions for pensions from ladies of a certain uncertain age was reported; an extension of credit for the War Office was asked.

Messrs Lockwood and Drabble proposed to extend the Great Southern of Santa Fe Railway from Carlsbad to Cordoba and read, with the Message of Governor about same. The Senators then went into secret sitting on some message from the Executive, and went home to 5 o'clock.

The last volume of the Census, just published, shows that the British community of this city has only increased by 100 souls since 1869 : It now numbers 417. The total foreign population is now 228,600 (about half the whole) to which the Italians contribute over 138,000. The North A-
